News from the Principal

I am constantly excited by the wonderful things happening at Emmaus!

Last week we celebrated our Footy Day with students and teachers wearing their favourite footy colours. I saw some very sad Bomber supporters wearing their colours proudly after their loss to West Coast the night before. At least they were able to make it to the finals! I also noticed there were not many Swans supporters out there. I'll have to see what I can do about that!! A special thank you to the mums who helped with the hot dog lunch.

Yesterday the Year 6s headed off to Camp Wyuna in Queenscliff for three days of fun. I heard from Brad late last night and he said that everything was going well and the students had been amazing. It is wonderful to hear that the students have gone away open to trying new experiences and quite naturally respectful to each other and their teachers. These children are a credit to their parents and their teachers. They are a tremendous group of leaders.

This morning 2K planned a beautiful mass about Creation. We were reminded of the beauty of our world and each other. They read, sang and prayed beautifully. I was very proud of them.

Next Friday we have our Colour Run. It seems that children, teachers and parents are looking forward to this exciting event. The children participating are asked to wear a white T-shirt to school on Friday with casual clothes not school uniform. The Parents and Friends will supply the children with a pair of sunglasses. If a child is not participating in the Colour Run we are asking that they wear a coloured t-shirt, any colour, with casual clothes, not their school uniform. We are hoping to have lovely Spring weather. School will finish at 1pm on that day.

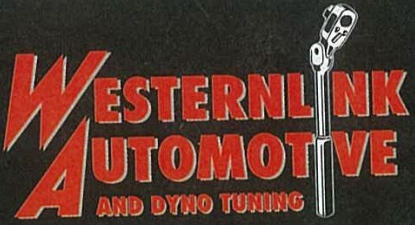

It's hard to believe we are approaching the end of term. Have a great last week.

Thank you everyone
Jackie
